Hi everyone!

The tragedy of typhoon Milenyo still carries out to this day. It was the worst storm to hit the country in 11 years, toppling trees, billboards, triggering landslides and flash floods and caused a Luzon wide power outage. A number of people died because of this storm and a lot more lost their homes. While it's safe to say that almost everything has gone back to normal, let's not forget to keep in our prayers those who perished and suffered in the unfortunate catastrophe and be grateful to God that we are one of those who are able to resume our normal lives once again.

On another note, I just wanted to share with you guys several photos that a young Winx fan, Vina Casibang, has sent me when she met some of the Winx fairies at an event. Vina has been emailing me religiously (in fact, sometimes it upsets her when I don't reply! Sorry Vina, I'm just crazy-busy most of the time!) and I want her and all of you to know that I truly appreciate hearing from you, receiving your letters and your artworks. And while sometimes, I cannot promise to publish everything (I receive a mountain each and every month but can only publish two pages' worth per issue), I want you to know that I really will try my best. But know that the Winx Club and I have our heart-felt gratitude and appreciation to you, thank you!

Love,

Cheryl

TURTLE POWER!

Our precious sea turtles may be heading towards the path of extinction if we don't do anything about it

The pawikan or the sea turtle has been around for more than 200 million years...or since the age of the dinosaurs! Unless more efforts are made to protect them, these reptiles might follow the dinosaurs into extinction, too.

In the Philippines, the most common specie found is the Green Sea Turtle. They grow up to 1.5 meters long and can weigh up to 185 kilos. Sadly, these turtles are hunted for their shells and meat. The turtle shells are used as wall decorations, jewelry pieces, guitars, bags and shoes. There are also reports that turtle meat is sold to foreigners so they can extract oil.

Luckily, the Turtle Islands Heritage Park was established as a sanctuary for these gentle giants. These islands in the Sulu-Sabah areas are maintained through the cooperation of both the Philippine and Malaysian governments. Many wildlife NGOs, such as WWF Philippines, use these islands as a home station to study these creatures and create conservation measures to make sure that these turtles will live through another 200 million years.

MUSIC OF THE MOMENT

Check out the latest must-have releases from our favorite pop stars!

PARIS PARIS HILTON

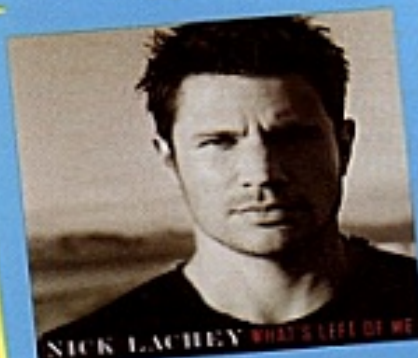

The hotel heiress who's at the helm of the public eye has finally released her much-awaited album. Paris is breezy, upbeat and filled with catchy tracks that will have you singing and dancing to them in no time. While some may lambaste her for being famous for merely existing, to be fair, Paris is a remarkably good album that boasts of star tracks like her first single, the breezy "Stars are Blind", the energetic "Turn It Up" the melodic "Jealousy" (about her feud with ex-best friend, Nicole Richie!). Just like anything Paris Hilton, her debut album makes for a whole lot of irresistible fun!

A PUBLIC AFFAIR JESSICA SIMPSON

Jessica Simpson's fourth album is evidence that she's trying to move on with her life—after her divorce from Nick Lachey. She has clearly taken charge of her life and it shows with uplifting pop melodies like her title track, the carefree "A Public Affair" and the dance-infused "Fired Up"—and even in the more balladic "I Don't Want to Care" and "Let Him Fly". It's safe to say that this is the strongest album Jessica has ever made—and her most enjoyable one to date.

WHAT'S LEFT OF ME NICK LACHEY

Nick Lachey seems to be handling his breakup with Jessica Simpson the other way around. In his 12-track sophomore album, Nick pours out all his heartbreak, endlessly grieving about his relationship. But it's times like these that melancholy breeds brilliance; Nick writes beautiful lyrics on heartache and delivers it with so much emotion. His title track and first single "What's Left of Me" finds him lamenting on his mistakes while "Shades of Blue" speaks of denial and "I Do It For you" of depression and anger. But it is in the compelling finale, "Resolution" where Nick seems to accept the end of his marital bliss. While the album is one of remorse, it also reminds fans of how talented and powerful Nick Lachey is as a singer.

Going Yahoo with Games

Beat boredom by exercising your brain! Log onto Yahoo! Games at <http://games.yahoo.com> and your computer will surely have you at the edge of your seat!

Bookworm

Feed the hungry bookworm by linking letters that are beside each other to form a word! This game has no time limit so you can take your time to plan your moves. Be careful with the burning red tiles because they will set your library on fire, and when that happens—the game's over!

Mystery Case Files: Prime Suspects

In this game, you play a detective searching for the Queen's Hope Diamond! Find the culprit by looking for the clues that are cleverly hidden in the picture. The game has 22 levels with 29 unique locations so it's never going to be a dull challenge—good luck!

Super Bounce Out

Swap the balls around to match at least three balls of the same color and watch as they bounce off the screen! This is a super addictive, fast-paced game you can't find any more combinations, press the panic button for the computer to help you out. Try to finish the level before the time ends or all the balls will bounce out and the game is over!

TEN REASONS TO EXERCISE

I love sports and exercise and I'm going to share with you ten wonderful reasons why you should get up on your feet—and move—whether it be to play sports, run, dance, or even to bend down to touch your toes!

- 1 With the accompaniment of an adult, walk around the neighborhood with your dog—or some friends. All you have to do is put on your shoes and walk out the front door!
- 2 Your heart becomes more efficient at pumping blood and oxygen through your body every time you exercise. Apart from being able to think more clearly, you'll also raise HDL levels (high density lipoprotein) in your arteries to protect you from heart attacks and strokes when you become older!
- 3 It's a great time to catch up with your parents and friends!
- 4 Aerobic exercise conditions your body to perform longer, faster and more efficiently.
- 5 The more exercise you do, the more energy you'll have for hours afterwards. After just a few weeks of conditioning, you will feel more energized than ever before.
- 6 It will make you feel great physically. Every time you work out, your muscles develop strength and power. Your lungs hold a great amount of oxygen—and your metabolism will burn fat for hours afterwards.
- 7 It will also make you feel good mentally. Not everyone has the discipline and ability to set a goal and reach it with slow, steady and hard work.
- 8 Exercise makes you flexible. Can you touch your toes easily without yelling ouch? Being flexible means having a "full range of motion" which means you can move your arms and legs freely without feeling tightness or pain.
- 9 It maintains your balance. Food gives your body fuel in the form of calories, which are a kind of energy, allowing you to breathe, walk around and do all the basic stuff. If you're active, your body needs more calories. You can maintain your body weight if you eat enough to meet your calorie needs, but if you eat more calories than your body needs, it will be stored as fat!
- 10 Exercise makes you happy and feel good about yourself! Your body releases powerful hormones called endorphins that start pumping through your bloodstream that will do wonders for your self-esteem and your mood.

OH, NOOO!

This stairs will never end ...

I am late!
... I will never arrive on time!

Pant!
Uff ... I have had enough!

I am here, finally!
And now...

... Let's ask ...

NOOO

Bloom, what is happening to you

It was just a dream ... a NIGHTMARE, actually! Still the same!

I was always AFRAID of Miss Sagant!

Her sudden questioning used to terrorize my entire class!

Yeah! Sorry, Flora... I ruined your sleep too!

But now it is in the past, right?

Don't worry! The alarm clock is just about to go off anyway and we may as well get dressed!

After such a long time I thought I had forgotten those terrible times, instead this is the third time that I have relived them in my dreams!

You don't need to tell me! My stomach has terrible cramps! BLUB!

Musa! Did you not sleep well either?

Slept? ... I dreamt of my most terrible FEAR! I had a concert to give and I couldn't find my flute!

My father spent a lot of money to buy it for me and I was about to ruin everything! ... It was amazing how real it was!

Have you all decided to wake up early this morning! Could someone tell me what is going on, at dawn?

More bad dreams! Musa and I are destroyed!

If you don't sleep well, the whole world seems uglier!

You don't need to tell me! I'm AFRAID too that I've become uglier!

Is this not a HORRENDOUS SPOT? I discovered it just last night!

What are you talking about? I cannot see anything!

And this WRINKLE? Can you see it too, Musa? Isn't it just FRIGHTENING?

Boff ... whatever you want it to be!

?!?

I knew it ... NOBODY understands me! Sniff! Sniff! And when I become OLD AND UGLY nobody will want me then!

But Stella, are you joking? It's a really strange FEAR to have, you know? You are still so young...

Yes, but time passes so quickly!

AND WHAT WILL BECOME OF ME IF OTHERS DON'T CARE ABOUT ME ANYMORE? BOOOOH!

?!?

Okay, today is a bad day! What do you say we all go to the garden for a beautiful walk in the fresh air?

We have magic for the first two hours ... and the teacher won't say anything if we do it outside!

Yes! Yes! Sniff!

Good ideal!

What do you have to think about? Has something happened?

Why don't you mind your own business? Who turned you on?

You did, last night. Don't you remember? Then you forgot to turn me off and I put myself on STANDBY!

Is there something new I should know? What do you have to think about?

Uff ... I really cannot stand busy-bodies and curious people!

You are right! I can't stand them either! ... What were you saying?

Girl? What girl?

Nothing ... I was just thinking about what has been happening lately! First there was that strange girl and then ...

It all happened after the inauguration of the new school year!

We were all in the garden saying goodbye to our friends who were leaving ...

"... So much so that Miss Faragonda and Professor Palladium have started to worry!"

... From what she said when raving, I think her name is LAYLA! She has no visible injuries, but she was struck by very powerful spells!

So powerful they cannot be identified? Is it possible?

I am afraid so!
The girl is sleeping TOO deeply and her subconscious is very disturbed!

No! ...
it's so dark in here ...
we have to get out of here ...
AAAAH!

She really must have had some terrible experiences, poor girl ...

It's so cute!
We have never seen one that small!
Where have they come from?

Even the pixie found with her hasn't told us anything! She is also asleep since we found them!

Roof!

Well, it's a long story ...
I am too busy right now to tell you!

Can we do something, Miss Faragonda?

I don't think so girls! Nature has to take its course!

Professor Palladium will treat her and we will call you as soon as there is some news, ok?

You can rely on me, principall!

... And so we could do nothing but leave and wait!

That young girl is safe here and she will wake up when her body has overcome the stress that has made her lose her senses!

God! A fine mystery, eh? And this is why you are so distraught!

Well, not just that ... but also for the dreams I have been having for some time now! Old FEARS are coming back to haunt me!

Hey, where are you going?

I was hoping to take it easy, but instead ...

I was thinking about that girl in the infirmary... LAYLA! Do you know if she has woken up?

I don't think so! Otherwise we would have heard!

We could go see her! We still have time for the lesson!

Good idea!

Hello principal!

Hi girls!

We were going to the infirmary! Is there any news?

I was on my way there too! Professor Palladium has just called me!

They are BLOCKED!
And for this reason
she cannot recover and wake up.

Something is keeping her a PRISONER OF HER NIGHTMARES and she will not return to normal until she manages to free herself!

More bad dreams! There really must be an EPIDEMIC going around!

Certainly is!

What do you mean? Have you also recently been dreaming differently that normal?

Well, yes ...
fears that we had long forgotten ...
old nightmares are tormenting us!

It's strange! Other girls have also complained about this
... and FONTEROSSA has also had the same problem!

SALADIN told me
that various girls are in the infirmary due to stress caused by RECURRING NIGHTMARES!

Interesting!

It would be useful to know if this is also happening in Magix.

Someone has entered the DREAM REALM to cause harm to this girl ...

... But he or she was so INEXPERT to have caused some unexpected trouble!

I am afraid so!
And this means only one thing ...

Are you saying that our dreams have their own realm ... and you can enter it whenever you want?

Perhaps you can change them as you wish?

Of course!

But it is not something to be taken lightly!
Dreams are very important for our equilibrium!

By reliving our fears in our dreams, we manage to overcome them!

I can't though ...

Because something is wrong ... and only one person could help us work out what!

Are you thinking of Doctor Morpheus?

Yes, him! Something serious must have happened if dreams are out of his control!

It would be a subject for next year, but perhaps you could deal with it anyway! What do you say?

Anything to help that girl! What do we have to do?

Doctor Morpheus is the GUARDIAN OF DREAMS and he has a lot to teach you! First of all you should go to him ...

He will tell you what happened ... and perhaps he can explain to you how to free our Layla!

Fantastic! Does Doctor Morpheus live in Magix by any chance? What is his address?

It's not that simple! I have to ask him to receive you ... and then he will let you find him!

Some time later ...

Another day has passed and nothing has changed! What are we waiting for?

I bought a new cell phone and the instructions manual was in THREE VOLUMES ... a TERRIBLE NIGHTMARE!

Get over it! I would have thrown it in the bin!

Layla is still sleeping and there is still no news from the principal! I am fed up doing nothing!

I also had a terrible dream last night ...

Are you mad? It was the latest model! You really don't appreciate technology, do you?

No, if it doesn't make my skin softer!

Girls! Girls ... there's news!

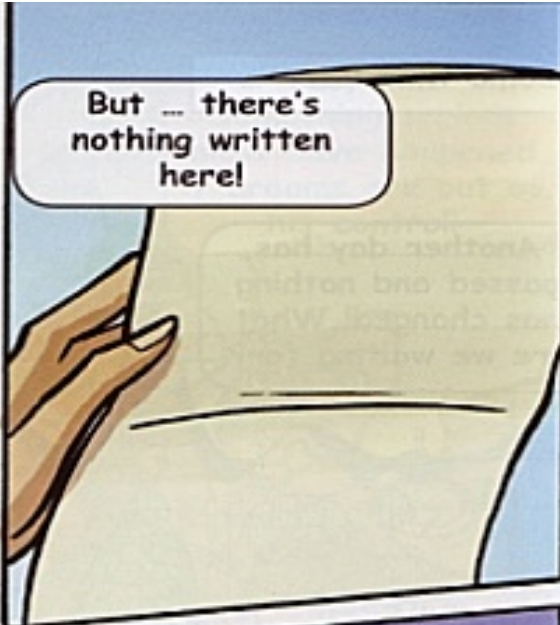

What?

There's a letter for you from Morpheus! Principal Faragonda gave it to me!

Oh! Finally!

But ... there's nothing written here!

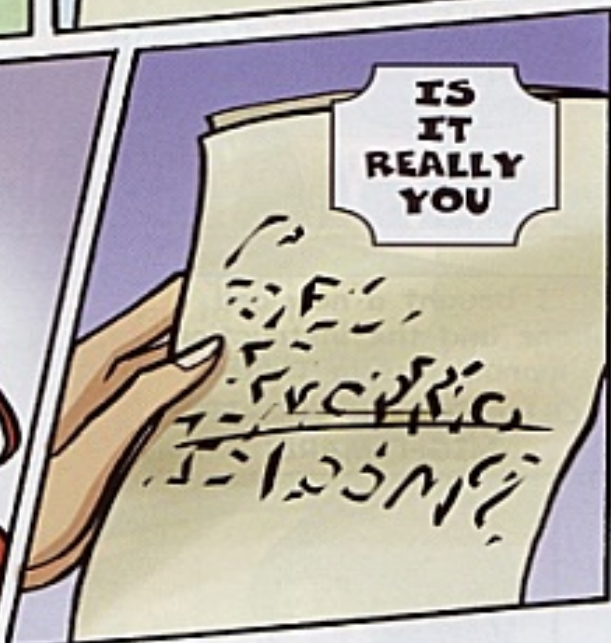

ARE YOU BLOOM?

SEI Proprio Bloom?

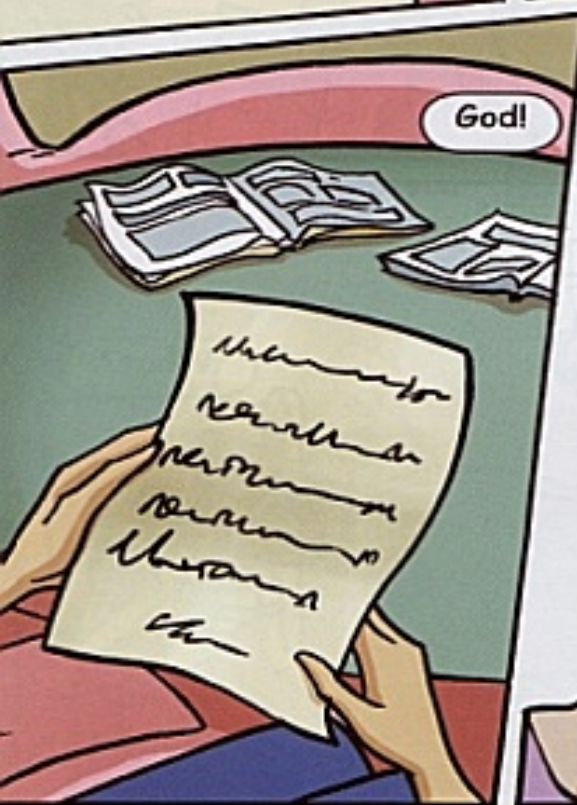

Of course I am!

IS IT REALLY YOU

SEI Proprio Bloom?

God!

A magic note!

What does it say? What does it say?

There's an appointment! Tonight at nine, in Any Street, between 13 and 15 ... at the door you'll make!

Is there an Any Street in Magix?

Any one at all, I mean ...
but what sort of appointment is this?

Uhm!

We will think about it as we go! It is almost eight and we should get moving,
don't you think?

Here we are in Magix
on time!
What should we do now?

But between 13 and 15
... what does that mean?

We need
Any Street,
I think ...
any street
at all, as Tecna says!

We have to save a girl and we have to play with stupid riddles!

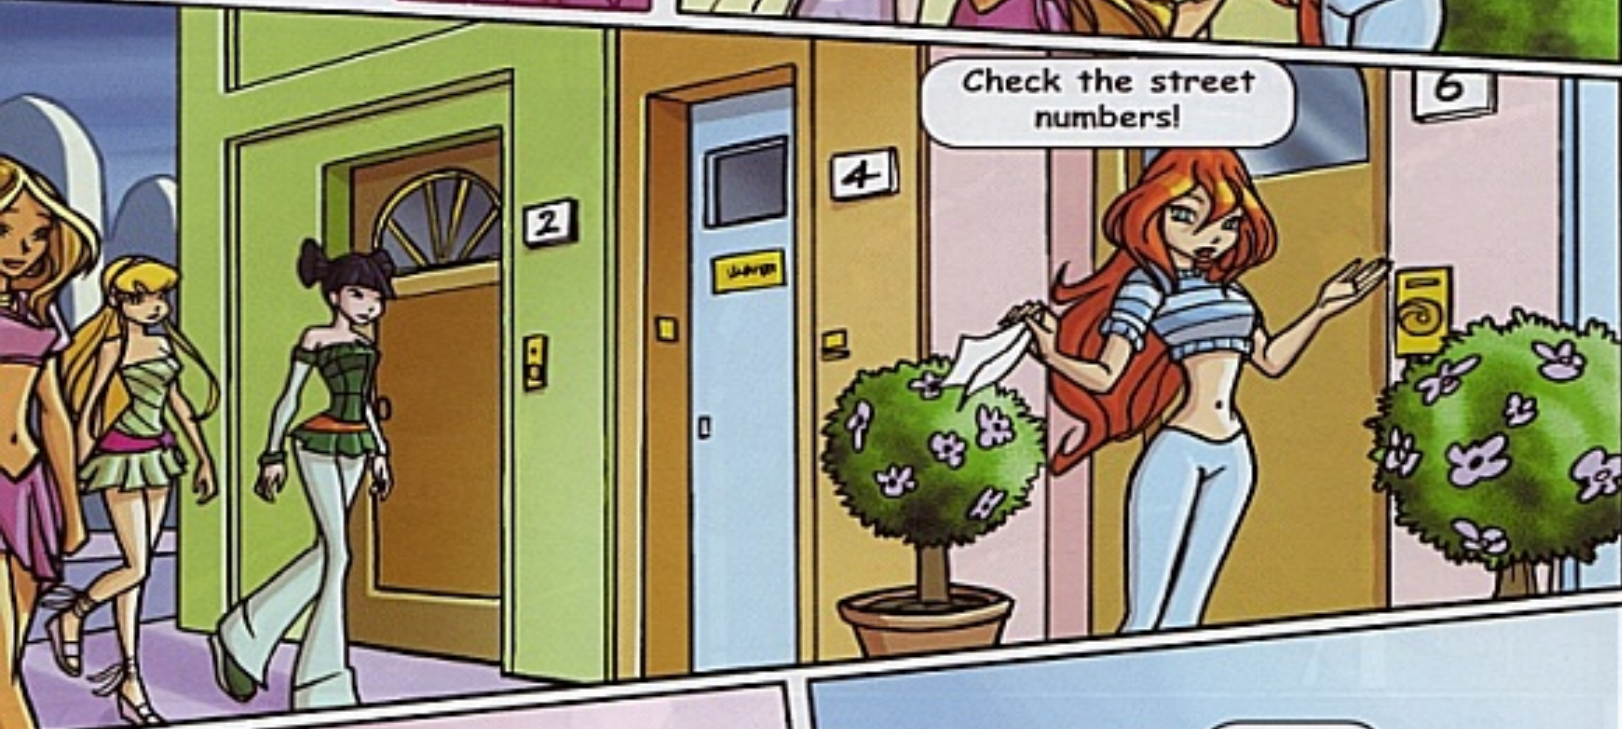

Calm down, Tecna! Obviously Doctor Morpheus wants to test us!

He must be strange and must have his reasons for behaving like that!

Let's try this way...

Check the street numbers!

This is number 13 ... and this is number 15!

There is nothing in the middle!

We are in front of number 14, but it is just a closed shop!

Have we to buy a watch?
What the hell does it mean?

No way! ...
Take a moment to think about it! Maybe ...

Tecna, do you by any chance have a pen?

46 Certainly not! I only write on my palmtop!

I have one Bloom!

15 What are you thinking?

"The door that you will make" the note says ... and I am making it!

5
This is the door we were looking for!
What do you think?

God!

It would be amazing if
...?!?

CLACK

Well done
Bloom!
You
did it!

Where will it lead to?

To Doctor
Morpheus,
naturally!
Let's go in,
c'mon!

Where
are we?

It looks like some sort of warehouse!

It's huge!

Have you seen what is in these jars?

Yeah!

Doctor Morpheus' COLLECTION OF DREAMS!
That guy really collects every dream!

There's a light down there!

May we come in?

Oh, you were quick! I wasn't expecting you before nine o' clock, twelve minutes and thirty-two seconds!

What time is it now?

Nine o' clock, eight minutes and thirty seconds!

A good four minutes and two seconds early! You are the best so far!

At finding your way! This means you can fix things without my help! I really don't have time to help you out!

Tha..Thank you! At doing what?

But to do what?

To recover the chest of FEARS and the barrel of NIGHTMARES that some imprudent person has spilled!
What else could it be?

A chest of FEARS?! ... You mean we can put them in a chest, just like any other thing?

Certainly not!
At least not in
your usual realm!

But in the DREAM REALM where we are now it is possible. Here I am! I collect and put away all those I find ...

FEAR OF THE DARK

I have a patient who needs some wonderful DREAMS OF LOVE ... and I have managed those excellently!

... Otherwise
we will all be tormented by old NIGHTMARE and FEARS ready to come back each time! Done!

You mean to say you have ... MADE TO MEASURE DREAMS?

Of cooourse? I'm a doctor, aren't I? There are a lot of people out there who cannot sleep and cannot dream as one should, you know?

I make everyone happy! A bit of fantasy ... a happy memory ... two or three drops of serenity and a wonderful dream is made! I have a lot of work to do!

Well, we have a friend who is imprisoned by her dreams and she needs, now more than ever, to get better! Would you help us, yes or no?

A prisoner of her dreams?

Verrry interesting! This is what I have in mind for those types of people ... pity we don't have time to study the case!

What sort of people?

Those who have scattered the FEARS! Have they done it as pure vandalism or to cover their tracks? ... And then they hide somewhere! Uuuhm!

You have to find them if you want to free your friend! When you free her from her nightmares, she will wake up! That's what you have to do!

But where will we look? And who do we look for?

What do I know? Can't you see I am busy? Faragonda said you were good ... follow your fears and do ENOUGH! We have already lost too much time! Let's leave!

But Stella, wait ...

Where are we going? We don't know what to do!

We have to manage, haven't you heard? I don't want to lose anymore time with that mad man!

"Follow your fears", he said! Perhaps that's what we need to do, right?

You're right! Perhaps that's how!

Whoever entered that dream realm to harm that girl left their trace behind them ... and we can follow them!

I believe so ... even if it won't be easy!

Looking for what scares us most, isn't that right?

Look at those two. What strange people!

I've never seen people like that in Magix!

They aren't people, but DREAMS! We are in the dream realm, remember?

We see what people dream of being!

You're right! Now it is all clear to me!

Look at him! You can really understand what he is dreaming!

LOOK OUT!

We can also encounter their NIGHT-MARES!

Or ours! ...
For this reason
it won't be easy!

ARE YOU GOING, YOUNG LADY?

?!?

It's me!
Come here and I'll ASK YOU SOME QUESTIONS!

MISS SAGANT!?!

Bloom,
wait!

Nooo!
Let's go!
GOOOO!

Are you ok, Bloom? It was just a dream! You said it yourself!

I cannot stand her, Flora! I can't control it!

If that old nightmare is among those released by the scoundrels that imprison our friend in the infirmary, it means that we are on the right track!

You're right! We have to keep going!

Well done Bloom!

You're right! Let's keep going!

What's up Musa? What are you looking for?

My flute!

What?

I cannot find it anywhere and I have to play a concert! Who knows where it is? ...Uuugh!

What are you talking about? There is nothing in there! It's just a nightmare!

If I can't find it my father will never forgive me...

Try and resist! You haven't lost your flute!

No! No! Leave me alone! Sigh! I have to find it!

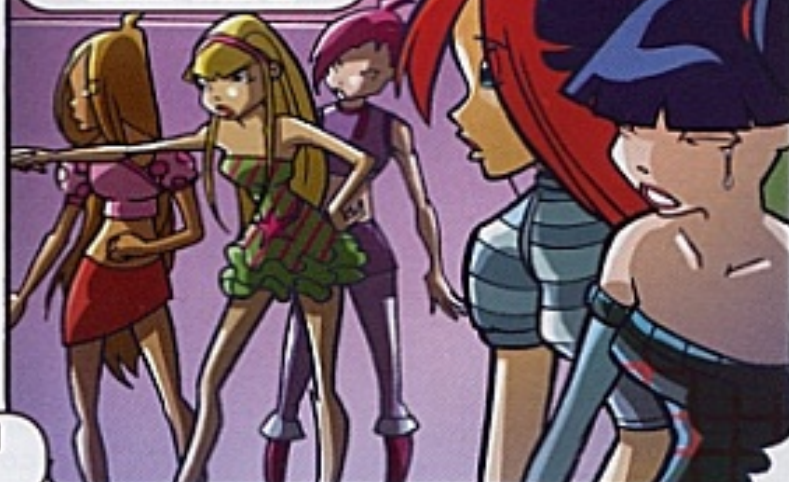

Everything is alright, Musal! It was just the dream that worries you every now and then and that you had again!

Sigh! Sigh! ... it seemed so very real!

What should I say, sol Look down there!

Where?

That's BRANDON ... with a very young girl who is younger and more beautiful than me!

I knew this would happen sooner or later ... I KNEW IT!

IT'S ANOTHER NIGHTMARE! It cannot be Brandon! Wake up Stella!

No! No! I am old and ugly and ...

Come with me and we will go and see! I will convince you that ...

But Stella, what are you saying?

What's up?
What have you seen?

... Oh, No!

Miss
Sagant again!
If she finds me she will ask me questions and I ...

But what is wrong with me? My nightmare is still haunting me! We will never get anywhere if we keep getting caught out like this! ...

Now I understand what we have to do! We cannot let ourselves be overwhelmed by our FEARS, but we have to CONFRONT THEM! That is the only way we can complete our mission!

Darling Miss Sagant
... here we are again!

Bloom, I saw you, you know?
Do you want to be questioned?

Definitely not Miss!

I was sick and I couldn't study! Could you not have told me in advance, instead of surprising me like this all the time.

?!?

Of course, child, why didn't you say something before? We can do it Tuesday, that way you have time to prepare!

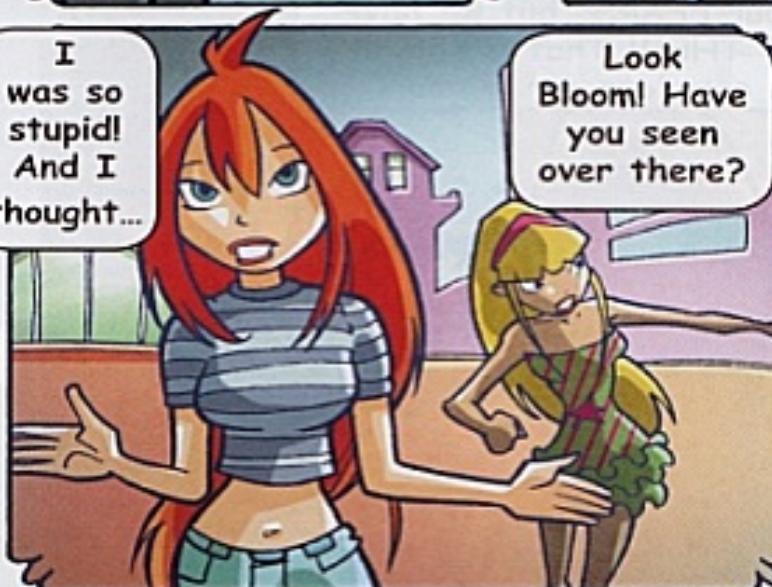

What?

Us teachers only want the best for you my dear, remember that!

You mean to say ... I was always afraid for nothing?

I was so stupid! And I thought...

Look Bloom! Have you seen over there?

It's not Brandon, but someone who looks like him! I was so afraid for nothing!

Stella, do you know what that means?...

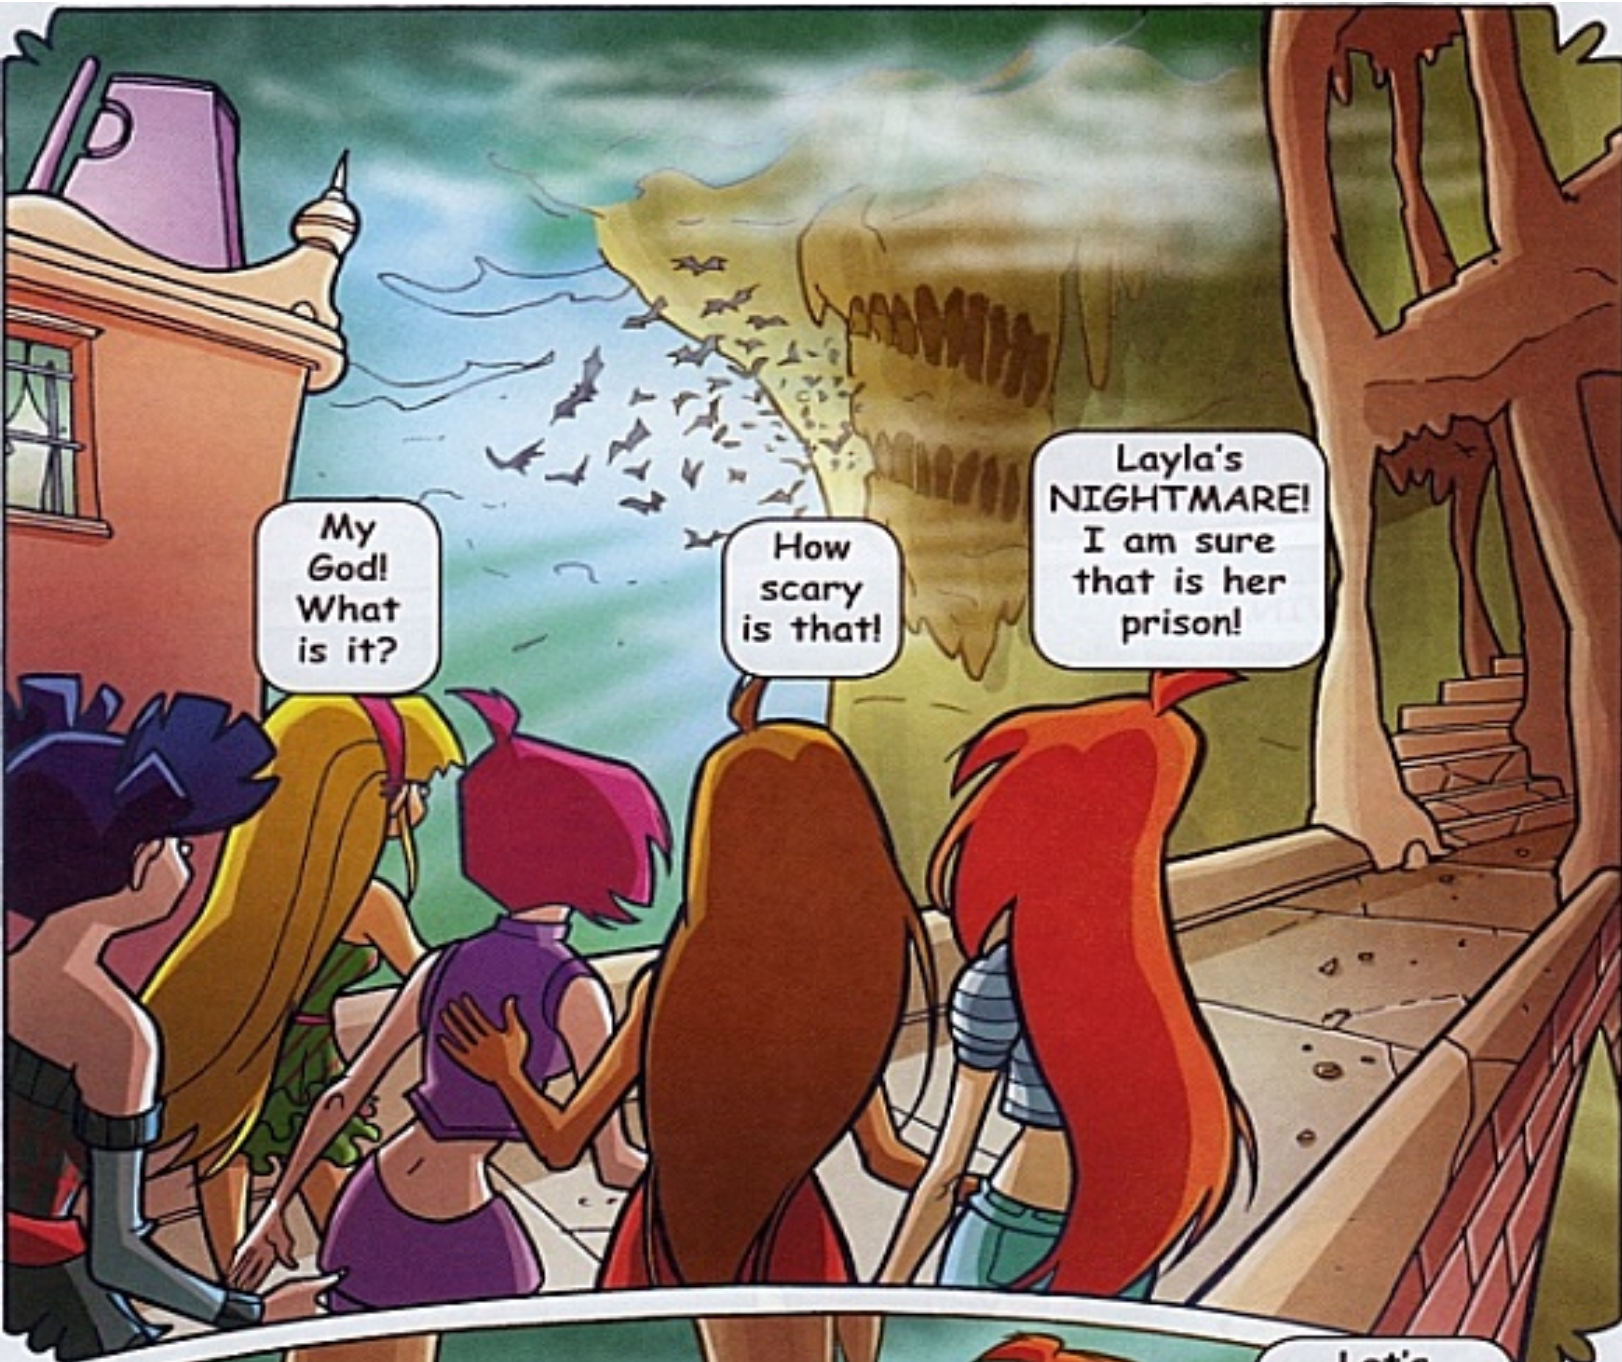

We have encountered and overcome our fears! Now the road is clear!

We have to continue in the same direction and quickly! We have already wasted enough time!

My God!
What
is it?

How scary is that!

Layla's NIGHTMARE!
I am sure that is her prison!

Let's prepare ourselves for some nasty encounters!

LOOK OUT!

MAGIX WINX!!

GRRRRRRR!

ENERGY SHIELD!

Now it's my turn
... YAAAAH!

He's sorted!

LOOK OUT!

BLEAH!
That's disgusting! What type of monsters are they?

Let's attack it together!

FSSSS

GRUP SKREAK

RIIP

GHEEAAAA

KRRRR... RANK!

Let's go,
girls! The path is clear!

Uuugh!

Look ... it's LAYLA!

We have to break those ropes! I WANT THE ENERGY OF A DRAGON!

She is free!

Wake up Layla!
WAKE UP!

Where am I?

Calm down, my child! Everything is alright! You have finally woken up!

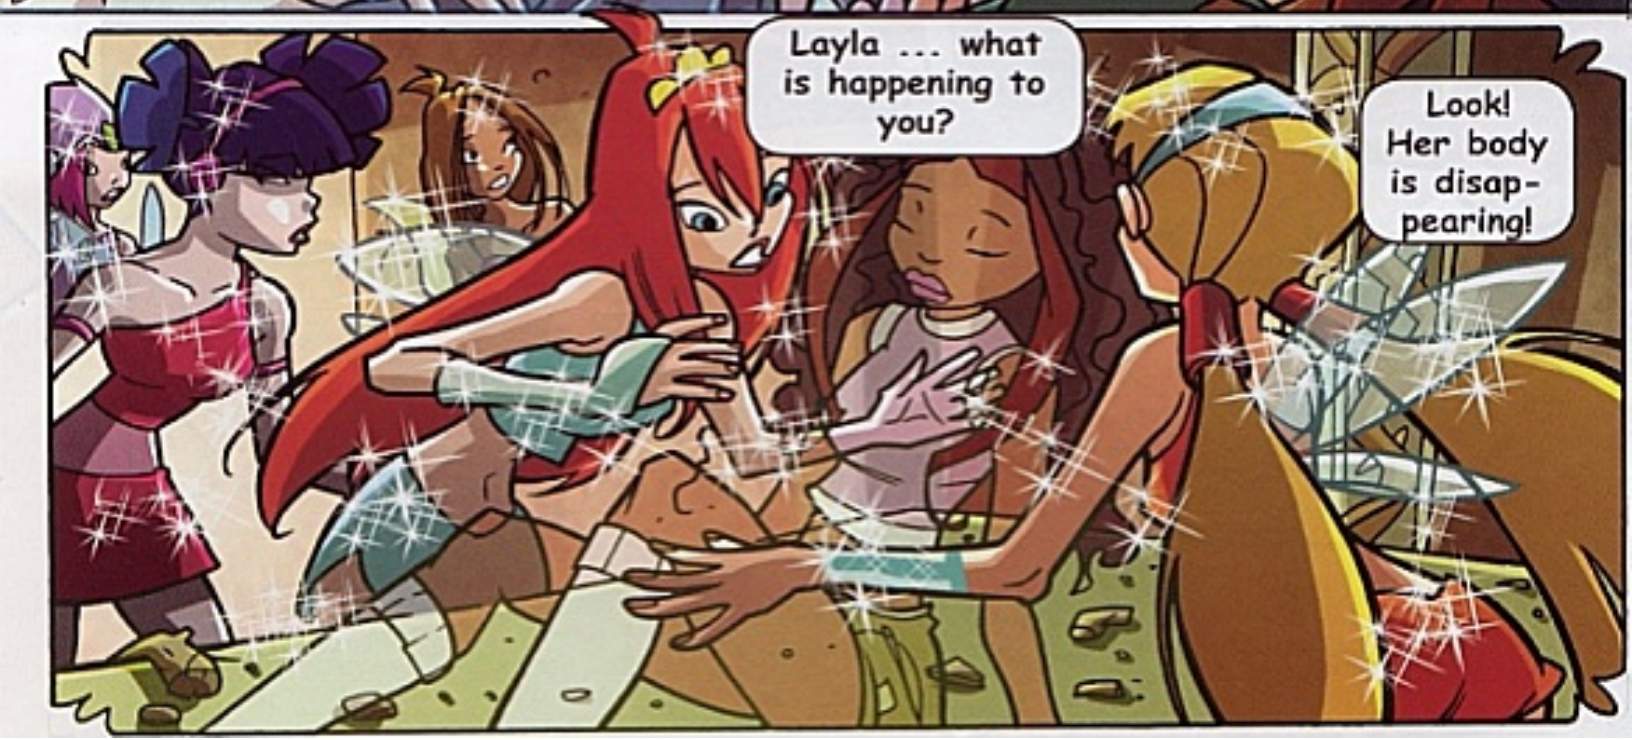

Piff ... you are alive? ... The monster is following us!

There is no monster here and your pixie is fine! Stay there and rest!

Has she fainted again?

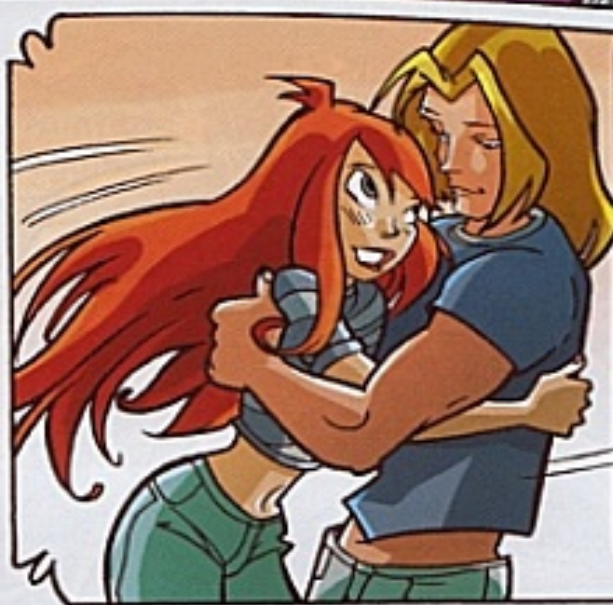

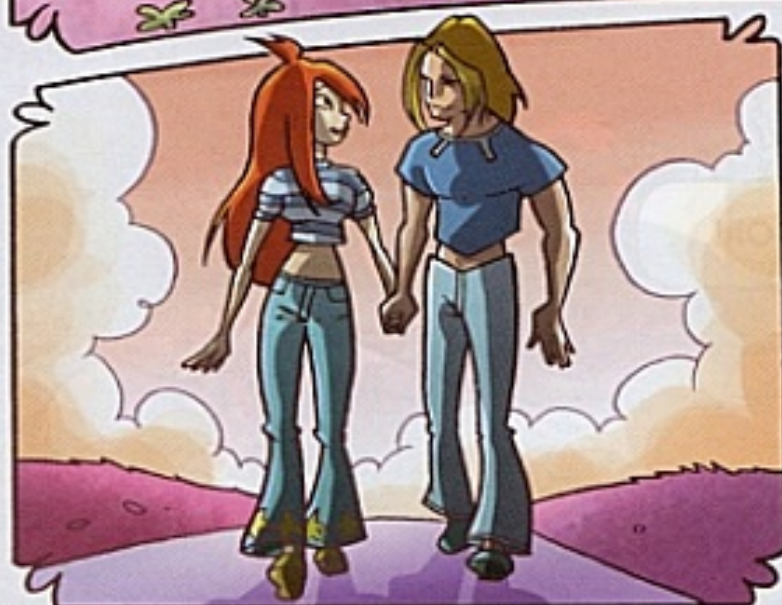

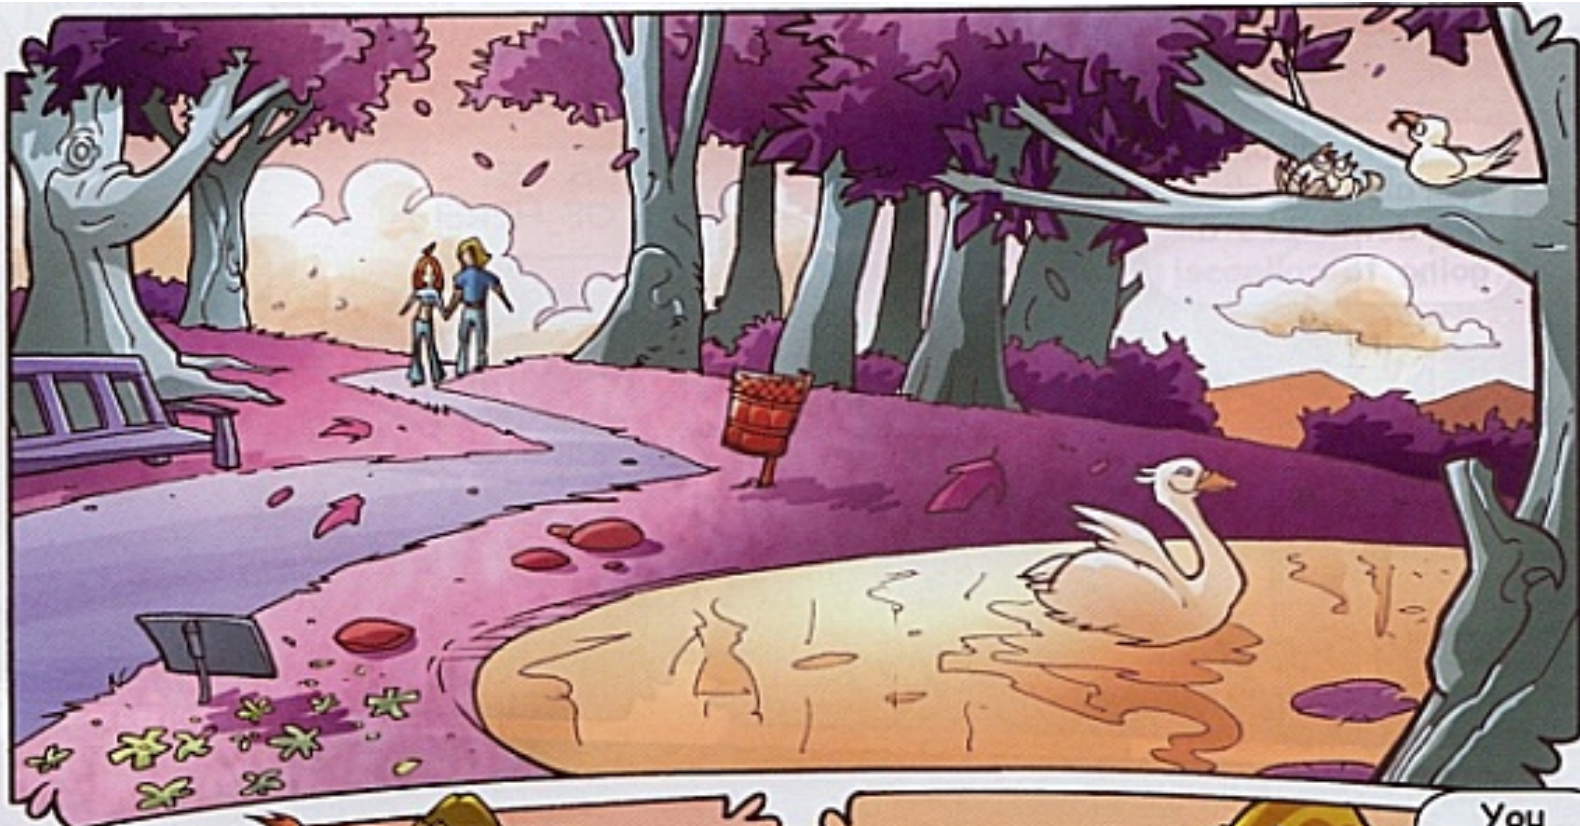

No! Now she is calmly sleeping! She will be well again in a few hours!

Layla ... what is happening to you?

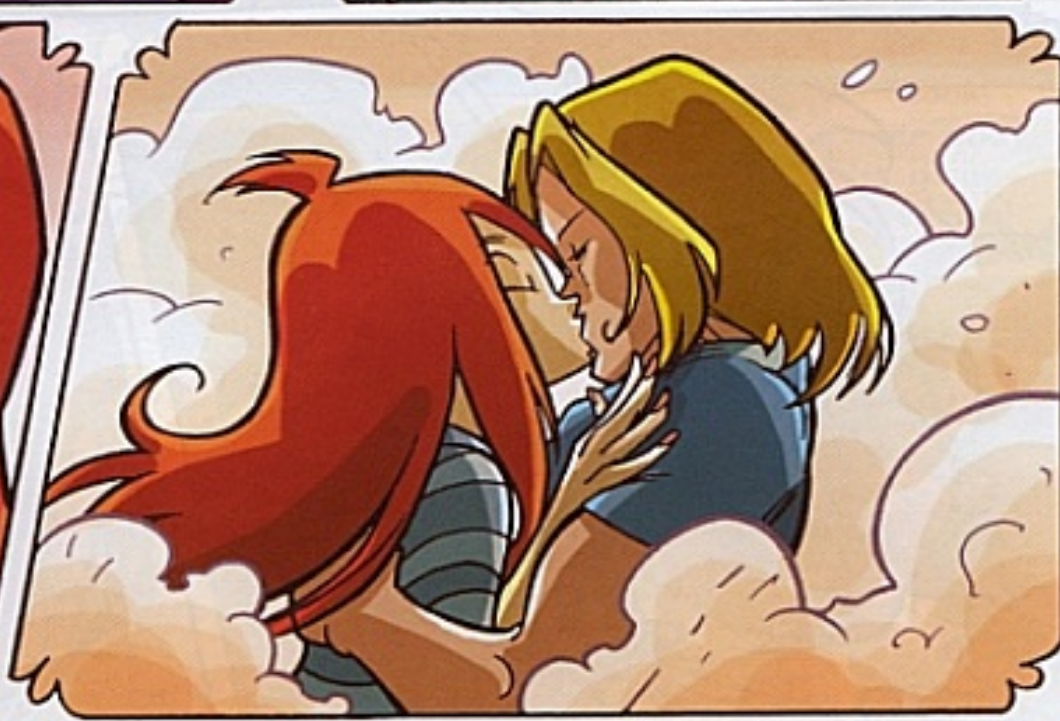

Look! Her body is disappearing!

You know something Bloom? You are the only one in my mind... and in my heart!

You are the only one for me too, Sky!

You finally woke up, lazy bones!

What an amazing dream I just had! Absolutely wonderful!

Doctor MORPHEUS was kind to reward us like that! ... Kind and really, really good!

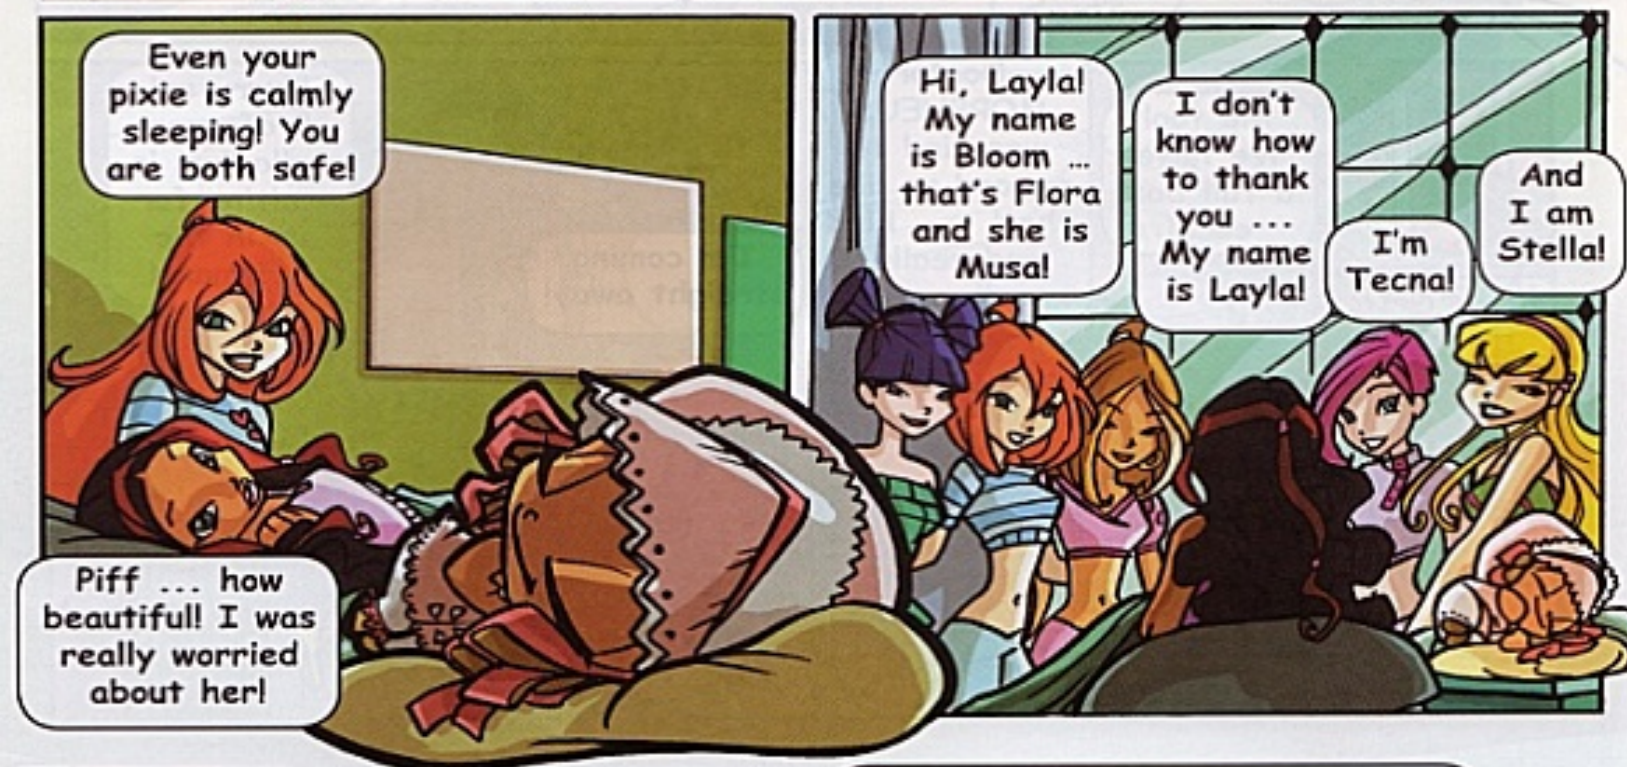

I'm coming straight away!

Hurry up! Professor Palladium is waiting for us in the infirmary!

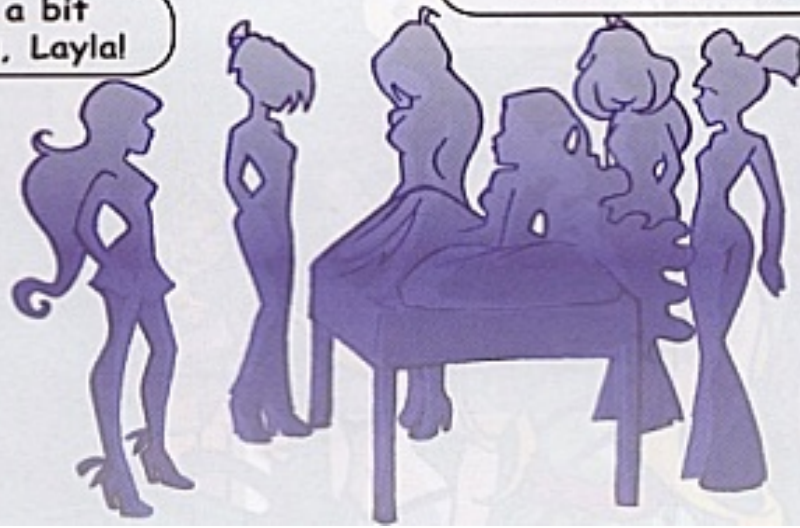

Here we are! Well, how are you?

She's all yours, girls! You've found her!

Tell us a bit about you, Layla

It's a long story! Terrible things were happening around us ...

THE END
